The last week has been unusually gay, with its imnumerable receptions, dances and clubs, beginning early in the week and closing with the last day. However, the most brilliant occasion of the week was the military reception. New Year's night at the executive mansion, when the National Guard and the Governors were out in full unfform, and through the the day and during the evening the First Regiment Band of St. Louis played unremittingly, their selections being most popular and delightfully rendered. At the executive music for dancing.

Mrs. F. E. Glesecke received Monday aftermon from 229 to 239 and again from 4 to 5, complimentary to her sister-in-law. Mrs. John F. Glesecke, nee Miss Katherine Young, of St. Louis, a bride of one week. The guests included only married ladies, and the invitations numbered about seventy-file. The color scheme throughout the house was green and white. Evergreens mislated and paims decorated the parlors and the wide reception hall and in the diming-room, where from an exquisitely hald table, the center decorations, being white carnations, wreathed in ferns, smilax extending from chandeller to the four corners of the table, lights chaded in green. The ice dream and confections, also in green, were served at one end of the rable, and at the other end coffee was poured. The young ladies presiding were Misses Alma class, Miller Pope and Daley and Lettita Marshall. In the hald punch was dispensed by Miss virginia D'Cench and Miss Mollie Chambliss of Kansas city. Mrs. Glesecke was assisted in receiving by Mrs. John Glesecke was in a light chade of rastor creps de Cline, trimmed in cream applique lace, and taquoise bire panne viewet. The largest reception o

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 2.—Society on te generally kept open house on New Year's Day. At every hotel or other public place, where a ball was possible or a recention-room obtainable, there were functions. Some of these arrangements were for many hundreds of guests. So 12 my were they indeed, that it quite occupied the day for callers to make the rounds and show themselves. New Year's Eve begann the festivities, when there was a ball in Convention Hall. Something like 10.0 couples were in attendance. Not being an invitation affair in the strict sense of the word, the exclusive propie of the city did not attend except as spectators. It had been promised the decorations of the wonderful hall would be perfect, and so they were. Society went to witness the electrical effects and the presence took others.

On New Year's Eve Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howe gave a dancing party at the Lycom in honor of their daugiters, Misses Katherine and Dorothy. Three or four hundred young propile attended. Those who assisted the host and hosters included:
